Clinical trials of intensive lipid-lowering therapy

TrialResults-center www.trialresultscenter.org

1 cardiovascular prevention

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Trial</th>
<th>Treatments</th>
<th>Patients</th>
<th>Trials design and methods</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>FATS , 1990 [NCT00000512] n=94/52 follow-up: 2.5 years</td>
<td>intensive lipid-lowering therapy with various drugs versus placebo</td>
<td>men no more than 62 years of age who had apolipoprotein B levels greater than or equal to 125 mg per deciliter, documented coronary artery disease, and a family history of vascular disease</td>
<td>Parallel groups open Japan</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

More details and results:

- cholesterol lowering intervention for cardiovascular prevention in all chronical situations at http://www.trialresultscenter.org/go-Q154

References

FATS, 1990: